Universities: Recommend early applic. Before Christmas and residence as well. In order to be considered for entrance awards, applications must be in no later than:

U of M has Mar. 1

Brandon has Mar. 1

SCHOLARSHIPS, BURSARIES AND AWARDS

Note this is a fluid document and awards are added and deleted regularly by the sponsors

Scholarships are awarded to students to assist with the cost of university, college or other post-secondary training. The criteria for scholarships will differ and may include academic achievements, community involvement, volunteer work, extra-curricular activities, personal interests, athleticism, as well as, the program they plan to commence leading to their future career.

Bursaries are awards that are given to students with financial need being a major factor in the criteria for the award.

Some tips: Students must be prepared to do some research to find scholarships that meet their unique situation. There are so many different scholarships available but the students need to meet the challenge and dedicate their time to discover these scholarships. Look through scholarship websites, check which awards are available from the university or college they plan to attend, inquire about scholarship programs. Activity groups such as 4-H or minor hockey have scholarships, inquire within the groups you are involved. Be prepared to do some work!! This may involve preparing lengthy applications, asking for reference letters, and writing essays. Be involved with school, volunteer and community organizations. Keep a detailed list of all activities and VOLUNTEERISM, all of these suggestions will assist you in your search for Scholarships.

This is only a summary of some awards available to students. Each post-secondary institution has a list of awards and bursaries for their own institution. Once you have decided on a college, university, technical school, or private institution, be sure to get a list of their entrance awards. Remember that these awards have deadlines, so don't wait too long to become informed. Also, these dates are approximate and are not official dates, as they change yearly.
